

Be Lucky

The Who

Be lucky
Be, be lucky, be lucky, some
Be lucky
Be, be lucky, be lucky, some
Be lucky
Be, be lucky, be lucky, some
Be lucky
Be, be lucky, be lucky, some

Be lucky, gotta make it your own
Get it from a bottle or squeeze it from a stone
Might not remember the best way home
But come December, you won't be alone

Be lucky
(Better not forget, oh no)
Be lucky
(A very simple thing)
Be lucky
(Better make a bet, uh huh)
Be lucky
(Or you might never win)

Be lucky, place your bet
Can it on a nag who ain't done nothing yet
Make sure it was born in the Lambourn Hills
Then Kentucky farm could pay your bills

You wanna travel cross the great divide
You really gotta have some luck on your side
You wanna climb without a safety line
AC/DC, it's gonna be fine

Be lucky
(Better not forget, uh oh)
Be lucky
(A very simple thing)
Be lucky
(Better place a bet, uh oh)
Be lucky
(Or you might never win)

If you want to sell you gotta kiss and tell
Then you gotta do a cover of "Highway To Hell"
If you wanna fight, if you need to bite
Then you gotta get ready to rock through the night

Be lucky, gotta make it your own
Get it from a bottle, squeeze it from a stone
Might not remember the best way home
But come December, you won't be alone

You wanna travel cross the great divide
You really gotta have some luck on your side
You wanna climb without a safety line
Daft Punk will tell you it's gonna be fine

It's gonna be fine!

Little Kylie is still on time

Go girl!

I'm here! I'm ready!

Be lucky

(If you wanna hit, just finish it)

Be lucky

(Dress it up like a laptop's hit)

Be lucky

(Sounds nice, my advice is)

Be lucky, some

Don't bet on paradises
