

Some Days Just Fucking Suck

The Wildhearts

Right now, somewhere
Somebody stopped living
Fed up of holding
Onto the hand they been given
In the 25 seconds
This song's been playing
Maybe 25 mothers
Lost 25 children

And we all get bruised
And we all get sore
But some people out there
Feel the pain a little more
When the daylight seems like
A thousand hours away
Debt (debt)
Doubt (doubt)
Trouble every day

Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(I gotta hold on now)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(I gotta hold on now)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(If you're thinking)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(Your world is sinking)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(You gotta hold on now)
Everything will be alright
(You know that)
Everything will be alright
(Some days alright)

Hold on 'til morning
There's a new sun a-rising
Chalk up another victory
Another notch on your rifle
So the name made it this far
I hear it come from your Mum's side
You got to wait a little longer
This is generation genocide

And we all get sick
And we all get bored
But some people out there
Feel the pain a little more
But the boy didn't come
From the sweetest side of town
He bend (bend)
He break (break)
But he don't go down

Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright

Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(I gotta hold on now)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(I gotta hold on now)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(If you're thinking)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(Your world is sinking)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(You gotta hold on now)
Everything will be alright
(You know that)
Everything will be alright
(Some days alright)

I know where you are
I know where you are
I know where you are
I know where you are

Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(I gotta hold on now)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(I gotta hold on now)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(If you're thinking)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(Your world is sinking)
Don't try suicide, everything will be alright
(You gotta hold on now)
Everything will be alright
(You know that)
Everything will be alright
(Some days oh yeah)
