

Under The Waves

The Wildhearts

The future clear as darkened stone
Console yourself, you're on your own
The Welcome lights are way behind
Eclipsed and down, you're pressure blind

Under the waves über alles
Under the waves über alles

Dive, dive, dive

The dream is not a dream no more
Just spent desires upon the floor
With tired intent you stand your ground
It opens up and takes you down

Under the waves über alles
Under the waves über alles
Under the waves über alles
Under the waves über alles

Dive, dive, dive

Under the waves über alles
Under the waves über alles
Under the waves über alles
Under the waves über alles

Dive, dive, dive
