

Let's Be Other People

The Wonder Stuff

Introducing one of life's brighter dreams
Oh, F, congratulations on your death
It's been the greatest thing you gave to me
So generous and selflessly, F.

Let's be other people
You can I can, all girls are boys and women loves man
But F, did I thank you on your death?

You left a mess and took my wife
Will you return to twist the knife, F.

This is not my tale, it's in a book I read when a man said
"Introducing one of life's brighter dreams"
But I don't dream, I don't dream, don't call me
"Beautiful Loser," don't call me
