

Racing Trains

The Wonder Years

There's always someone on the train with me that wants to talk about everything when I just want to fall as leep

The train is late for the third time this week and everyday it's raining around 9:15

I've worn these rails thin and ran for the train again It's always late to the station Rush hour came and went three to a seat and we're filled up with awkward conversation

And this guy on the R-5 line tells me about his life I'm sorry man but I got shit to write
He says he split a Quaalude with Sid Vicious That's cool but I don't know what it is Cool but I don't know what it is

There's always someone on the train with me
that wants to talk about everything when I just want to fall as
The train is late for the third time this week
and everyday it's raining around 9:15
