

Mary Anna

The Wood Brothers

Of the two of us I know I've been the fool right from the start
Every other day I fumbled for the light switch to your heart
But lately I've been thinkin' You're gettin' mighty cold
And if it ain't the switch, honey, well it just might be the bo th?

Oh won't you cut all the lights Mary Anna
Won't you cut all that midnight sun
Won't you cut all the lights Mary Anna
I can't wait for the mornin' - the mornin' to come

Of the two of us I know you've got the looks and all the charm
Every other day I'm humbled just to hold you in my arms
But lately I've been thinkin' You might not give a damn
And I don't wanna be nobody's every other day man

Oh won't you cut all the lights Mary Anna
Won't you cut all that midnight sun
Won't you cut all the lights Mary Anna
I can't wait for the mornin' - the mornin' to come

Yeah mornin' to come

You've been puttin' me on like your make up
And it's lonely in the dark when it's wrong
And honey I'm fixin' to wake up
But I like my lovin' with the light on

Oh won't you cut all the lights Mary Anna
Won't you cut all that midnight sun
Won't you cut all the lights Mary Anna
I can't wait for the mornin' to come

I can't wait for the mornin' to come
