

Astral Plane

The Word Alive

And I have been here before
I don't understand how I've returned
I have seen where this takes me
I didn't choose this path

Take me home
I've found the road

Take me home
Take me home
I've found my home

Take me to a better place
Where I'm who I was born to be
This wasn't what I envisioned
I'm not who I know I'm Supposed to be

I've searched and searched, I've laid awake at night
I've walked through the darkness
I've ran to the light
I've ran to the light

And there was nothing there but questions I had
With answers I couldn't find
Have I lost my mind?
Is this all there is left to life?
Is this all there is?
Is this it?
Is this all there is left to life?

Take me home
