

Dragon Spell

The Word Alive

I'm still the king of the world
I'll never falter or squander my dreams
I've still got control over my enemies
They still beg me for mercy
Show no mercy
Show no mercy

I've fought for this kingdom
I'll take hold of what is mine
I'll be the lord of the universe
If you want me, I'm right here

I'd give everything,
Everything that I had
There's always a war within me
I'd never let it show,
I'll never let my family down
Fight for what you stand for

I feel further than a thousand oceans
My thoughts are eating at me now
I have so much riding on me
To be the man I was born to be

This is a family
We won't crumble in the face of our enemies
This is a family
We won't crumble in the face of our enemies
This is a family
Don't fuck with family

We won't fall
I will not ever let this kingdom fall
I'd give everything,
Everything that I had
There's always a war within me
I'd never let it show,
I'll never let my family down
Fight for what you stand for

If you were me, would you stand strong,
would you fold?
My sacrifice
My sacrifice
I've never giving up
For those I love back home
My sacrifice
My sacrifice

Your dreams have come to an end
Because this was mine and I won't give in
Your dreams have come to an end
Because this was mine and I won't give in
Your dreams have come to an end

I'll never lose sight of what I believe
I'll fight for my friends, my family

We won't fall
I'd give everything,
Everything that I had
There's always a war within me
I'd never let it show,
I'll never let my family down
Fight for what you stand for

If you were me, would you stand strong,
would you fold?
My sacrifice
My sacrifice
I've never giving up
For those I love back home
My sacrifice
My sacrifice

I'm still the king of the world
I'm still the king of the world
