

Like Father Like Son

The Word Alive

If you're not my blood, you are my bones.
The only one I've ever known.

You showed me how to be a man.
You don't know what you mean to me.
So many secrets run through me.

Don't fuck with family!
Don't fuck with family!

I've tried to be a better man
For you will see that I've grown.

I know we've both made mistakes but you could never fail me.
In my heart you're the one who's molded me to be a man who could make you proud.
Do you have regrets do you ever look back?
Do you have regrets, don't look back.

The one I turn to.
Nobody sees me as you do.
You're always there.

You taught me all I know (you better me I know)
You taught me all I know (you better me I know)
I'm sorry for the times I made you sad
I just want you to know that.

I know we've both made mistakes but you could never fail me.
In my heart you're the one who's molded me to be a man who could make
you proud.
Do you have regrets do you ever look back?
Do you have regrets, don't look back.
(Don't hold back, don't hold back!)

Many nights I laid awake trying to think of a way to say
But the words just don't seem to escape.
They get trapped at the start but the feelings won't fade.
So here's a song to say I love you.

This is the one I hope will let you know
I don't need blood but I need bones. You are my home.

I know we've both made mistakes but you could never fail me.
In my heart you're the one who's molded me to be a man who could make
you proud.
Do you have regrets do you ever look back?
Do you have regrets, don't look back.

I don't need blood! I need bones!
