

The Runaway

The Word Alive

You get caught in a hurricane
Sadder thoughts make you go insane
Woah! Oh!
Lock yourself in your own cage
Hide the keys and fade away, go
Woah! Oh!

You are not alone, we can get through it tonight!
I will be the answer to your run away train, tonight!
I will be the figure when you're feeling insane
I know it hurts sometimes, so I'll get in line with you
Oh woah oh, tonight!
I will be the answer to your run away train

I will be the wrecker

You think this could be the end
Own up to life it's just pretend
Woah! Oh!
Illuminate the darkest days
Never leaving your side, I'm here to stay
Woah! Oh!

You are not alone, we can get through it tonight!
I will be the answer to your run away train, tonight!
I will be the figure when you're feeling insane
I know it hurts sometimes, so I'll get in line with you
Oh woah oh, tonight!
I will be the answer to your run away train

Never regret never regret all of the words you said in hope
Never pretend never the end it's always a fight to win

Tonight, I will be the answer to your run away train
Tonight, I will be the figure when you're feeling insane
I know it hurts sometimes, so I'll get in line with you
Oh woah oh, tonight!
I will be the answer to your run away train

I will be your wrecker
