

Different Truck, Same Loser

The Wreckers

She'd rather be with the wrong man than no man at all
Just a couple of skipped heart beats and she's ready to fall.
She's intelligent, intuitive, with common sense until it comes to men
Here comes her next fiasco and here we go again

Different truck, same loser
Different Face, same shooter
A leaver or a booser
A cheater or a user
If there's one in fifty miles he'll end up in her couch
Same road no future different truck same loser

Well he'll break her heart and she'll cry where have all the good ones gone
Then over look and angel to take the devil home
If he's arrogant, copendent, baggage written short on cash she's in
You can bet yourself you'll get a call to meet her new boyfriend

Different truck, same loser
Different Face, same shooter
A leaver or a booser
A cheater or a user
If there's one in fifty miles he'll end up in her couch
Same road no future different truck same loser (loser)

Different truck, same loser
Different Face, same shooter
A leaver or a booser
A cheater or a user
If there's one in fifty miles he'll end up on our bus
Same road no future different truck same loser
Same road no future different truck same loser
