

Boys You Won't

The Wrens

Boys you won't remember
From the minute
You walked into the room
Every letter started broken hearted
And ended way too soon

Lived through underrated
Getting jaded
To wind up with no one
Hiding in new places, getting wasted
Singing "I guess we're done"

I don't want you to wonder why
It won't do any good
You don't know what you got into
Until you know when it's all gone wrong

And I don't the feel the need to try and explain
Excuses sounding the same
Your gonna find your gonna find im
Im feeling down, but i stood up
Dead up of the ground, but i stood up
Lost without a sound, but i stood up
Facing your not around, but i stood up
You want me, you want me

Don't know what you got on me
Ill even it just you wait and see

And I don't the feel the need to try and explain
Excuses sounding the same
Your gonna find your gonna find im
Im feeling down, but i stood up
Dead up of the ground, but i stood up
Lost without a sound, but i stood up
Facing your not around, but i stood up
You want me, you want me
