

Hearts On The Pavement

The Years Gone By

Sleep on the lawn
alone in the dark
wish you would call
even just to talk now.

she screams
my heart breaks
i can't leave all the i love

cuz i need you,
your arms are my blankets.
we carry,
hearts on the pavement.
stay up all night
never go to sleep
cuz without you its never a good dream yeah without you its never a good dream

drive past your house but you aren't home
hope you're alone like i feel tonight i pass out on the floor i fall asleep on my couch cuz my bed reminds of all the times wasted on you

she screams
my heart breaks
i can't leave all the i love (all that i love)

cuz i need you,
your arms are my blankets.
we carry,
hearts on the pavement.
stay up all night
never go to sleep
cuz without you its never a good dream
cuz i need you
we carry
hearts on the pavement
stay up all night
never go to sleep
cuz without you its never a good dream

All that, I Have
In my heart is gone
(all that i have close to my heart is gone)
All that, I have

cuz i need you,
we carry,
hearts on the pavement.

never go to sleep
cuz without you its never a good dream

cuz i need you,
we carry,
hearts on the pavement.
never go to sleep
cuz without you its never a good dream (without you its never a good dream)
