

I Want to Fly

The Zombies

Bathed in starlight
Birds wheel hard across the sky
Me, I want to fly
And the days go so slow
With no way to satisfy
I just must break free, 'cause I'

I want to fly
Leave the ordinary world
And say goodbye
Kiss the earth and make a wish
And say a prayer for the lonely ones

Clouds come steeppling
Peopling fantasies that I
Watch as they race by
And my heart is breaking
Aching for the reason why
Me, I want to fly

I want to fly
Leave the ordinary world
And say goodbye
Catch the wind and kiss the sun
And make a prayer to the only one

Sometimes I,
Feel like I
Only exist, and I just
I need to
Be free to Become myself

Some lay sleeping
Deep inside a lullaby
Me, I want to fly!
And my heart is breaking
