Theatre of Tragedy

Highlights

[Bonus track]

Always the young one

Walks along the newly interred course

Mindful of what he is and has become

Somehow, we all admire

Somewhy, that's what all require

Always a heartbeat

Followers can deal with pure deceit

No reversal of our course

We have put up with a lot

Never again will we say sorry

All this damage, all our fault

Words don't commit, they withdraw

Shining a light on traces we left yesterday

Lost in the sparkle of a million stars in the sky

No remorse, we always leave with no sign

Nonessential lines intersecting time

Don't expect it all to be highlights

Remember when promises were revoked

Somewhere, approved without him

Someday this ends

Displays of a shape blurred and out of phase

Clichés seem like figures on a window pane
