

Let You Down

Theatre of Tragedy

no risk, no fun I'm here, you're gone I'm cool, you're hot I love you not

Don't say a word Unless you're heard

I know I hate to see you rude I think I'll let you down

You should have let me go I think I'll make you leave

'Cause you have lost control

You've pushed the line too far Bye-bye

Turn over, there's no need to try You waste your time

You're absolutely useless, baby I think I'll let you down

You should have let me go I think I'll make you leave

'Cause you have lost control.
