

Fly Away

Theatres Des Vampires

You know what
We've always been
You know how to pray to see
This surrendered mind
Is learning how to live
In this labyrinth of time
We do not escape

If you ready
You'll be the next one
To rise up this endless sea
Fly Away
Through this pain
Where nothing seems so real

There is no more time to bleed
There is no more chance to dream
Our distorted eyes are asking to be free

Free from this darkness
All around us
Out of this cage

If you asking
You'll be the next one
To rise up this endless sea
Fly Away
Through this rain
Where things appears unreal
