

From the Deep

Theatres Des Vampires

Your dreams
Your prayer
I can't believe
Can't be just pain

Your days your ways
In all these tears
In all these screams

From the deep my call
There is one reason for your life
One more reason for your life

Here I am
Please don't cry
Till the end to say goodbye
Here I am
And here my prayer
I'm still here and in your days

From the deep my call
There is one reason for your life
One more reason for your life

This is the life
Too short to die
Too hard to stay
We'll meet again
These words for you to say goodbye

Perfect day for the rain
Hear my song to say goodbye
Till the end of this life
When the light goes away
Hear my song and hear my cry
It's not the end of your life.

Here I am please don't cry
Till the end to say goodbye
Here I am and hear my prayer
I'm still here and in your days
