

If I Had a Reason

Thee Oh Sees

If these guns were mountains
You could see them far away
Although, they are average, you'll gonna wait till later days,
But if I had a reason, I could blow you all away If these knives were clouds,
You could lay back,
Watch them float away
Although, they are land-bound,
They only peek out when people say
If I had a reason, I could blow you all away.
