

I ain't seen
The day turning me
While the still be me
You will see
To now and then
Until you will
Ever love again
They will see one day,
You will tears

I will stand and to
The beating of your heart
I won't sit take it to
The right and take it to me
Real I'm taking the step
The faces I to sleep

I will say this
Sun will dance on me
You will be the as
I get in your head
Your hand is weak
I don't see
The day turning me,
While the
Pressure's killing me

While the
Still be me
You will see
To now and then
Until you will
Ever love again
They will see
One day, you willtears
I will stand and to
The beating of your heart.
