

Second Date

Thee Oh Sees

saw you go home late last night checked the front door, it was locked up tight so i went around to have myself a little look snuck in through your kitchen door grabbed a knife from the top left drawer you're at my feet again, but baby, you are no more you let our your last breath told me that i was the best, but please, no more but please, no more. baby, you're getting more
