

Don't lie, when I'm asking for the truth, you gotta say it
Don't tell me when it hurts cuz I don't care
Got to be the [?] For what you want
That's the law, that's the law

Stay down, you will? To the office in the mornin'
Don't tell me of your night in your vacation
You have no time to even take a shower
Oh, please, please, tell me what I want again

You ain't even know it, it was waitin' for you at your location
It shot alive in hemisphere to reach you
Black and blue as the sky has a vortex
Oh, please please, don't, I'm innocent
That's the law, that's the law

Don't lie, when I'm asking for the truth, you gotta say it
Don't tell me when it hurts cuz I don't care
Got to be the [?] For what you want
That's the law, that's the law
