

In Ruins

Theory Of A Deadman

I'm tryna pick up the pieces
My flag's wave undefeated
Leaving wounds like a battlefield
Too many wounds we can't heal
Now I think we realize
We were seen through blind eyes
This was always gonna happen
So why we so sad then?

Now it's all gone, after we move on
What a disaster, with nothing after
Swept of our feet, but nothing underneath
Oh, we had it all but now we watch it fall
Faaaaaall (in ruins)
Now we watch it fall
Faaaaaall (in ruins)
Now we're in ruins

It's been so long since this made sense
Cause now it's ending senseless
It's been so long since it was alright
Thought it have you my whole life
And now our dreams aren't so sweet
We only talk when we're fighting
We were due from the beginning
We don't get a happy ending

Now it's all gone, after we move on
What a disaster, with nothing after
Swept of our feet, but nothing underneath
Oh, we had it all but now we watch it fall
Faaaaaall (in ruins)
Now we watch it fall
Faaaaaall (in ruins)
Now we're in ruins

I give up, I give in
I surrender to it
We were strong, not strong enough
Lost our love, spill the blood

Now it's all gone, after we move on
What a disaster, with nothing after
Swept of our feet, but nothing underneath
Oh, we had it all but now we watch it fall
Faaaaaall (in ruins)
Now we watch it fall
Faaaaaall (in ruins)
Now we're in ruins

I give up, I give in
I surrender to it
We were strong, not strong enough
Lost our love, spill the blood
