

Fall Behind

Therapy?

Everything is in flux
Everything is totally fucked
There's a great big knot that I need to undo

Please don't let me fall behind
The last few years have been unkind
Please don't let me be another tragedy
Please don't let me fall

The plans I had in my head
Never got as far as my fingers
Just a quiet obsession and introspection

Please don't let me fall behind
The last few years have been unkind
Please don't let me be another casualty
Please don't let me fall

Our little friends
Only moments of friendship
What if in the end this turns out to be true?

Please don't let me fall behind
The last few years have been unkind
Please don't let me be an act of lunacy
Please don't let me fall
