

Vulgar Display of Powder

Therapy?

Full of yourself to bursting
No self awareness or self control
All of the bullshit your blurting
Everyone's heard it all before

Bombastic and pompous
Coked up to the eyes
This isn't how you cope
You coward
You finally turned
Into what you despise
And now you're a joke
You coward

Now you really let me down
And I don't want you around

Walked in your desperation
Slave to the ritual unable to play
A battle of endless static
Must you say everything that you think?

Bombastic and pompous
Coked up to the eyes
This isn't how you cope
You coward
You finally turned
Into what you despise
And now you're a joke
You coward

Now you really let me down
And I don't want you around

Bombastic and pompous
Coked up to the eyes
This isn't how you cope
You coward
You finally turned
Into what you despise
And now you're a joke
You coward

Now you really let me down
And I don't want you around

You coward
You coward
You coward
You coward
