

Words Fail Me

Therapy?

It's easy to put together
Easier to fall apart
Cruelty comes so easy to some
On others it leaves a mark

Shine
Shine
Words fail me again

The fire we've started is dying
Irreplaceable sparks
What do you think we've gained by all this
Swinging in the dark

Shine
Shine
Words fail me again

Shine
Shine
Words fail me again
Words fail me again
Words fail me again
Words fail me
Again
Words fail me again
Words fail me again
Words fail me
