

Just In Time

There for Tomorrow

Something wrong with me
I'm not getting along with me
My eyes pasted on the ceiling
I can't get my mind to stop working

I knew all the blackest blues
You were all my favourite tunes
This was all I had to lose

Tried out for size
To my surprise, I can't fit in anybody's arms
No more disguise 'cause I realised
I can't fit in anybody's heart
Oh you, oh you
You left just in time

Should've known to turn
Get ahead of the curve but I've learned
The failure sounds all too familiar to me
To just get my mind to stop working

I knew all the blackest blues
You were all my favourite tunes
This was all I had to lose

Tried out for size
To my surprise, I can't fit in anybody's arms
No more disguise 'cause I realised
I can't fit in anybody's heart
Oh you, oh you
You left just in time

As the light darkens again
I lose myself within 'cause in the end
Still I'm reminded
Still I'm reminded

Tried out for size
To my surprise, I can't fit in anybody's arms
No more disguise 'cause I realised
I can't fit in anybody's heart
Tried out for size
To my surprise, I can't fit in anybody's arms
No more disguise 'cause I realised
I can't fit in anybody's heart
Oh you, oh you
left just in time
You left just in time
