

Enemy

Theresa Sokyrka

I'm tripping downstairs because I feel the music coming.
To hear a laugh from you makes me feel like I am flowing.
I've placed a belief in myself that I've left behind quite quickly.

If you can't market me then I see you'll see the end of me.

The end of me is the enemy,
Yeah the enemy is gonna be the end of me.

Cause I'm crossing a road now and I feel my feet start to wander.

And all that I've learned now, seems to be too much to squander.

I've placed a belief in myself that I've left behind quite quickly.

If you can't market me then I see you'll see the end of me.

The end of me is the enemy,
Yeah the enemy is gonna be the end of me.

Cause I'm crossing a road now and I feel my feet start to wander.

And all that I've learned now, seems to be too much to squander.

I've placed a belief in myself that I've left behind quite quickly.

If you can't market me then I see you'll see the end of me.

The end of me is the enemy,
Yeah the enemy is gonna be the end of me.
