Enemy

Theresa Sokyrka

I'm tripping downstairs because I feel the music coming. To hear a laugh from you makes me feel like I am flowing. I've placed a belief in myself that I've left behind quite quic kly. If you can't market me then I see you'll see the end of me. The end of me is the enemy, Yeah the enemy is gonna be the end of me. Cause I'm crossing a road now and I feel my feet start to wande r. And all that I've learned now, seems to be too much to squander I've placed a belief in myself that I've left behind quite quic kly. If you can't market me then I see you'll see the end of me. The end of me is the enemy, Yeah the enemy is gonna be the end of me. Cause I'm crossing a road now and I feel my feet start to wande r. And all that I've learned now, seems to be too much to squander I've placed a belief in myself that I've left behind quite quic kly. If you can't market me then I see you'll see the end of me. The end of me is the enemy, Yeah the enemy is gonna be the end of me.
