

Clavicula Nox

Therion

Dark horizons come close to me and magick will be my key
I will travel through the gate to be the finder of my fate.
Nox, the night and key
I will open your old mystery.
Key of night, open up!
Deep abysses I sink into and behind the light I go
My long journey never end, but I will receive what I send.
Nox, the night and key
I will open your old mystery.
Key of night, open up!
