Clavicula Nox

Therion

Dark horizons come close to me and magick will be my key I will travel through the gate to be the finder of my fate.

Nox, the night and key I will open your old mystery.

Key of night, open up!

Deep abysses I sink into and behind the light I go

My long journey never end, but I will receive what I send.

Nox, the night and key I will open your old mystery.

Key of night, open up!
