Harlequin Hellequin Trivelin Arlecchino I'm harlequin Take off the mask In the feast of the night I'm going to appear Dancing with you in the labyrinth All through the night In the wild hunt And chasing your fear I am a Devil in Hell Dante could tell I am one of thirteen Harlequin, jester of Hell Harlequin Hellequin Trivelin Arlecchino I am the hellequin My mask is red and black (I'm) The sneaking devil The emissary I bring you to the play Into the masquerade. I am the devil. I am the winter dream. You are ensnared in the harlequinade Yes, ride the bull on Saturday night Wear triangular patches in the comedy. Hail, Capricorn and the Fairy Queen. Wear the black mask (of) Arlecchino Join the wild hunt (and) enter Saturn Hail the Elf-King. I'm harlequin Take off the mask In the feast of the night. I'm going to appear Dancing with you in the labyrinth, All through the night, In the wild hunt, And chasing your fear. Harlequin, jester of Hell. Malebranche, thirteen we are. Odin's followers.

Harlequin Hellequin Trivelin Arlecchino