

Nothing to Lose

Thievery Corporation

Nothing to lose if we are wise
We're not expecting rainbow colored skies
Not right away
Nothing to lose, it might be fun
No talk of spending lifetimes in the sun
Although we may
Both you and I have seen what love can do
We'll only hurt ourselves
If we build dreams that don't come true
What can we lose, we know the score
Let's wait before we talk of evermore
One day we may
Nothing to lose
But much to gain if love decides to stay
Nothing to lose, nothing to lose
Nothing to lose, nothing to lose
