

Take My Soul

Thievery Corporation

Such strange ways to show
Who we are, what you know
Put the love back in your heart
Lets try forgiveness
No self deception
Little less reaction
Little more reflection
New trails are blazing in
City shows no love tonight
All the sounds come crashing in; inside and outside
Running through your mind
All the words collide
Nothing left to hide

Come on open your eyes
Take my soul
I don't need it anymore
Don't let go
You're the cure I'm looking for
Take my soul
I don't need it anymore
Don't let go
You're the cure I'm looking for

Old habits creeping up
Floating by riding high
Silver clouds up above
Come on open your eyes

Take my soul
I don't need it anymore
Don't let go
You're the cure I'm looking for
Take my soul
I don't need it anymore
Don't let go
You're the cure I'm looking for
Take my soul
