

The Passing Stars

Thievery Corporation

Are you out there
I feel so far from home
The world's dissolving
It's easy to feel alone

Love's gifts remain unopened
And all our faith is broken
Subliminal illumination
Our train has left the station

The world and stars now pass us by
And lead us on to the divine
Receiving love from everywhere
Our fear dissolving into air

Receiving love from Everywhere
Our fear dissolving into air (2x)
