Freedom Song

Thin Lizzy

Let me tell you the hard luck story About a man named jack mcduff He believed in God and glory But he just wasn't tough enough

I believe in the freedom song Long live liberty! I believe in the freedom song I'll choose my own destiny

Well they took him and they beat him Underneath the old hanging tree Saying, jack, you must die What will your last words be?

Jack, he hung his head back
Long live liberty!
I believe in the freedom song
Doesn't matter what you do to me

With a rope around his neck they left him hanging High on that old hanging tree
On her knees his wife was screaming
Lord have mercy, lord have mercy

I believe in the freedom song Long live liberty! I believe in the freedom song Doesn't matter what you do to me
