

Can't Get Away

Third Eye Blind

I miss the sand on the concrete floor
I miss the way it was before
No one even knew me
Your eyes looked right through me
And I'm taking off your clothes
And you bloom like a rose

I can't get away from you

And where the ocean meets the land
Is like the sliding of your hand
Prickles up my skin
And I can feel the changing weather
Ride alone along the coast
Sense memories of your ghost

I can't get away from you

Deliver me, shut me up
Deliver me
Give into me, release
Deliver me, deliver me

Through the airport corridors
In magazines in stores
If I see your face once more
Cause you know I can't ignore it
I recognize that pose
When you bloomed like a rose

I can't get away from you
