

Farther

Third Eye Blind

Nothing much matters to me
So I don't see
Why I should hold so tightly
To a memory that I can't speak of
I think about it nightly how you opened up your life for me
Why are you still lonely?
Though I'm not the type who begs
I'm thinking how you'd open up your legs
And I'm farther from you every day
Alright, Yeah
Farther from you everyday
F, f, f farther

And a woman talking to herself
Gathers up the shit she couldn't sell Chances don't bode well tomorrow and Talking to myself pass by
I miss you but not the face you make Like when you found me out for the fake
I am so easily you see through me
What do you do to me to make me treat you so bad?
I keep hoping that you'll speak to me
But I'm farther from you every day
Yeah, oh yeah
Farther from you every day

All I think about is waiting and all the people we are fading into

Farther from you every day

There was a sound, but I don't know how it goes, there was something we went through
Blew in from the coast
You are of the earth, I am of the sky
I don't even know what the hell that means
Farther from you every day

All I think about is waiting and all the people we are fading into
Farther from you every day

And I think about you dying years from now never having known who you are

(This could be my big mistake)

Farther from you everyday

All I think about is waiting and all the people we are fading into
Farther from you every day

And I think about you dying years from now never having known who you
are

Farther from you everyday (Big mistake)

All I think about is waiting and all the people we are fading into Farther from you everyday
