

20 Good Reasons

Thirsty Merc

They said love hurts
I wrote that book
I climbed that wall
I had one look
But you just came around, to say hello

The streets were filled with guilty hearts
And here was I right from the start
And I lost everything
When I lost you

So tell me why-why-why-why
Should I let you go
Give me 20 good reasons
I need to know
Yeah

And at that point
There was no pain
There was no sky
There was no rain fall
All there was was you and your sweet face

But life is life
And things will change
Like scenes upon an actors stage
Tomorrow comes today
for all we know

So tell me baby why-why-why-why
Should I let you go
Give me 20 good reasons
I need to know
Yeah

Give me 20 good reasons [X3]
To let you go

So tell me baby why-why-why-why
Should I let you go
Give me 20 good reasons
I need to know
Yeah

So tell me baby why-why-why-why
Should I let you go
Give me 20 good reasons
I need to know
Yeah, yeah

Give me 20 good reasons [X2]
Good reasons
I need to know
Yeah

Give me 20 good reasons [X3]
