

Gone

Thirteen Senses

Sometimes I rush to get right to the end
I know I'll get to this place when I feel the time is right
Sometimes I think that I know what I'm all about
But when I look inside I can see the truth come out

Sometimes I try to go on
I know it's wrong
Cos when I see your eyes
I can see the flame is gone, gone, gone

Sometimes I climb to the top to see what's above
But when I find it there, there's no time for happiness
Sometimes I count up to ten just to see when
When will I see the sun, in my eyes I've just begun
