Spirals

Thirteen Senses

```
If I could set you free and give you what you need Then all my energy is lost
If I divide our time and give you half of mine
Then all my energy is lost
```

```
And I keep seeing spirals at my feet And I keep seeing spirals at my feet
```

If I could set you free and give you what you need Then all my energy is lost Well, I begin to ring and notice everything Then all my little plans have been lost

```
And I keep seeing spirals at my feet
```
