

Come One Come All

This Beautiful Mess

come on come one and all all weary and heavy laden pack up your sorrows it's time to head back home let's go let's go for broke no no one knows which way is home let's move, let's keep on moving we will get to where we're going how long will this be going on i want to know what's going on come back come back and haunt me like a true shepherd would lead me beside still waters until all time has gone
