

Doublespeak

This Century

Let them talk for you
Pay them no attention, just watching
As were dragged out through the rain
Optimistic that were landing
In a mess of waves, await for a clear view&

Double-speaking
Will we
find some truth within the answers
Harder to trust
And yet were hoping
To find some truth within the answers

Blurring our intentions
Blurring our creations, were living Separate lives that fail to make
All the proper hesitations
Separate lives that fail to take, all the chances

Double-speaking
Will we
find some truth within the answers
Harder to trust
And yet were hoping
To find some truth within the answers

Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh.

Double-speaking
Will we
find some truth within the answers
Blurring the course
And yet were hoping
To find some truth within the answers
