

Hard To Get

This Century

I can understand how this was only intuition
Because I've been searching for you like it was competition
It's simpler when words come out so easily I'm tending to forge t

Know that I'm not bothered by the lack of recognition
You don't wanna get me started at my use of contradiction
It's difficult when every person place and thing is keeping me from her

Hard to get, you get me
Every time I can't complain
I suppose this is something that I'm getting used to

I over heard you mentioning you went to California
Said that being in another place was better off for you It's simpler when your out of sight and out of mind I'm hoping to forget

I wont hesitate to compensate the previous event
Cuz so many times I feel like none of this is making sense
It's typical of you

Hard to get, you get me
Every time I can't complain
I suppose this is something that I'm getting to used to

Hard to get, you get me
Every time you walk away
I suppose that it's something that's worth getting used to

Hard to get you get me every time I can't complain
I suppose this is something that I'm getting used to Hard to get you get me every time you walk away
I suppose this is something that's worth getting used to
