

My Weakness

This Century

Why don't you feel me?
Why don't you wait until I'm dead and gone?
To tell me you need me
But you're just another love trying to do me wrong

'Cause I'm fooling myself trying to be someone else

I don't know anything about you
Keeps me up at night
Heart in overdrive
Fall back down
Break me into pieces
You are my weakness
You are my weakness

Why don't you leave me here?
Leave me with the broken memories on the floor?
Don't tell me you need me
I left your empty promises at the door

'Cause I'm fooling myself trying to be someone else

I don't know anything about you
Keeps me up at night
Heart in overdrive
Fall back down
Break me into pieces
You are my weakness
You are my weakness
You are my weakness

Come on baby turn it up, I wanna hear you loud
I wanna hear you loud, I wanna hear you loud
Come on baby light me up
I wanna burn it out, I wanna burn it out
I wanna burn it out

I don't know anything about you
Keeps me up at night
Heart in overdrive
Fall back down
Break me into pieces
You are my weakness
You are my weakness
You are my weakness
You are my weakness
