

Skeletons

This Century

You're like a ghost to me
A love so true I cannot see
It's such a mystery
But I'm
Head over heels for you

Can't get inside your head
Threw away the key instead
And kept it locked away
But I'm
Head over heels for you

You got the shackles on me, yeah
But I just wanna be free, yeah
Don't need an expert to see, yeah
That it's time to shake your skeletons

Shake your skeletons (2x)

You're an anomaly
Wrapped up in a million dreams
You're a love conspiracy
But I'm
Head over heels for you

You're floating endlessly
Into infinity
Run circles around me
But I'm
Head over heels for you

You got the shackles on me, yeah
But I just wanna be free, yeah
Don't need an expert to see, yeah
That it's time to shake your skeletons

Yeah, yeah
Shake your skeletons (2x)

I know that you felt so low, yeah

Shake your skeletons

So take your skeletons and break my heart
Don't bring me back, bring me back to the start
Don't leave me here when we've gotten this far
So come on, come on and break your skeletons

Shake your skeletons (2x)

I know that you felt so low, yeah

Shake your skeletons

So take your skeletons and break my heart
Don't bring me back, bring me back to the start
Don't leave me here when we've gotten this far

It's time to shake your skeletons
