

Young And Useless

This Century

Just another story 'bout the young and the useless
Used to be a pretty boy, now he's just worthless
Couldn't keep his word, no he couldn't keep a secret
Just another story 'bout the young and the useless

And I say no
No I won't go

You know we're never gonna wake up
A generation in a coma
And I don't care about your problems
You're looking better with your mouth shut
'Cause I've had enough
And no we're never getting out, out
Young and useless

Just another story and it comes in a tight dress
(And I can't take it)
Used to go crazy turning up the music
(No one will ever know)
Couldn't feel the down beat staring at the ceiling
(And I can't take it, I can't take it)
Just another story 'bout the young and the useless

You know we're never gonna wake up
A generation in a coma
And I don't care about your problems
You're looking better with your mouth shut
'Cause I've had enough
And no we're never getting out, out
Young and useless

I won't waste my time with you
And I don't want another you
'Cause this fuse is burning short
And I won't take anymore
Young and useless

You know we're never gonna wake up
A generation in a coma
And I don't care about your problems (oh)
You're looking better with your mouth shut
'Cause I've had enough
And no we're never getting out, out
Young and useless
Young and useless
Young and useless

You're looking better with your mouth shut
'Cause I've had enough
And no we're never getting out, out...

Just another story 'bout the young and the useless
