

Help Me Lift You Up

This Mortal Coil

I don't have to tell you that you're all alone
Hear what you will, you're not gone
You'll have to be with your kind
I'll have to stay with my own kind
Help me lift you up, help me lift you up

So sorry if I can't stop pretending
So sorry if I don't let you go
Like this, but not like this is ending
I think you know, I think you know
Help me lift you up, help me lift you up

I have a dream, it's very clear
You're all around, but never near
Help me lift you up, help me lift you up
