

Waste Myself

This Providence

Oh we could lie beneath the stars
Or watch a thousand passing cars
From the roof of this prison, yeah
Or we could make this moment ours
And I could hold you, touch your scars
I can't believe that I have you, yeah

You
I waste myself on you
I'd do anything for you
I waste myself on you, yeah

Like a feather in a hurricane
That's sweeping through my brain
I can't seem to find hope in this situation, love
Oh so I tremble like an earthquake
Your tears, a heavy rain
Drown my soul and apathy like a flood, love
Sing it now

You
I waste myself on you
I'd do anything for you, yeah
I waste myself on you, yeah

You set me on fire
Now we're walking on a wire, baby, a wire, baby
You set me on fire
Now we're walking on a wire, baby, a wire, baby

You
I waste myself on you
I'd do anything for you, yeah
I waste myself on you, yeah
