

Imagine

This Romantic Tragedy

(It's all for you)
Clear your mind tell me what you're waiting for (It's all for you)
We can all break through

We question too
We see the truth in the lies we live,
(And then you wake up.)

We can all break through this,
(And then you wake up)
We can all break through this.

I've been meaning to say,
meaning to show you,
a place where our dreams
can come true
Imagine.

Imagine
A place where our dreams
can come true
Imagine
A world that cannot exist without you.

I wish this place was true,
for only a choice few.
It wouldn't be complete, without you.

The tables are turning from
everything we've thought,
I'm trying to help you but
you're not listening.

(Let's all pretend, it's all okay, but in the end,
we stay the same)
Let me tell you about a world that I dreamt of,
It's all for us.

Just think of, a world of,
your friends and family,
without them, you're lost,
Cause you know they're all you need.

In time you'll see what we've been saying all along.
You would never believe all the things I need,
My friends and family, without them my life wouldn't be right.

I do this all for you, for you I will be true,
and when it's at it's end,
I'll be there with my friends.

The tables are turning from

everything we've thought,
I'm trying to help you but
you're not listening.

(Let's all pretend, it's all okay, but in the end,
we stay the same)
Let me tell you about a world that I dreamt of,
It's all for us.

Let's all pretend, it's all okay, but in the end,
we stay the same
The tables are turning from
everything we've thought,
I'm trying to help you but
you're not listening.

Let me tell you about a world that I dreamt of,
It's all for us. (2x)
